COMPLAINTS POLICY

Policy number	14	Version	1
Drafted by	Executive Director	Approved by Board on	17/6/2015
Responsible person	Executive Director	Scheduled review date	26/11/2017

INTRODUCTION

The value of complaints and Mercy Work's commitment to good complaint handling

Mercy Works recognises the importance and value of listening and responding to concerns and complaints. We are committed to achieving the highest standard we can in every area of our work and to continuous improvement. This applies especially to delivery of services, seeking donations and accountability to stakeholders generally. We are committed to working according to or above the standard required by the Code of Conduct of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID). Receiving concerns and complaints is one of the most important ways of learning what we need to do to improve our work.

This policy applies to all our services and to all the people, employees and volunteers who work in our services. All personnel are familiarised with it. Those with particular relevant responsibilities are trained in its application.

We make clear the value we place on receiving concerns and complaints in all relevant communications. We advise how a copy of this policy may be obtained and we provide clear information on how complaints may be made.

PURPOSE

Guiding principles for the Policy

Mercy Works have adopted the following principles for our complaint policy and procedures.

Principle 1: Visibility

We will clearly publicise information about how and where to complain

Principle 2: Accessibility

We will ensure that our complaint handling process is as accessible as we can practically make it to all complainants.

Principle 3: Responsiveness

We will respond to complaint according to our predetermined timeframes.

Principle 4: Objectivity

We will address all complaints in an equitable, fair and unbiased manner using evidence submitted by both the complainant and our personnel through the complaint handling process.

Principle 5: Charges

Access to the complaint handling process is free of charge to complainants

Principle 6: Confidentiality

We will observe strict confidentiality in complaint handling.

Principle 7: Consumer/client-focused approach

The interests of our consumers/clients are foremost in our approach to complaint handling.

Principle 8: Accountability

We will ensure that accountability for and reporting on the actions and decisions with respect to complaint handling is clearly established.

Principle 9: Continual improvement

Continual improvement of the complaint handling process and the quality of services is one of our permanent objectives.

To this end we will—

- maintain data collection on complaints for the purpose of identifying trends for the purpose of enhancing information management and service provided;
- keep abreast of best practices (both locally and overseas) regarding complaint handling;
- foster a consumer/client-focused approach;
- undertake specific training and retraining of staff to foster better complaint handling practices;
- encourage innovation in complaint handling development; and
- recognise and reward exemplary complaint handling behaviour.

CORE POLICY

1. Definitions

Complaint means an expression of dissatisfaction made to an organisation, related to its products or services, or the complaint handling process itself, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected.

Complainant means a person, organisation or its representative, making a complaint.

Inquiry means a request for information or an explanation

Feedback means opinions, comments, suggestions and expressions of interest in the products or the complaint handling process

Stakeholder or interested party means a person or group having an interest in the performance or success of the organisation

2. Scope of the policy

This Policy is intended to apply to any complaint, regardless of who makes it.

Mercy Works will accept complaints relating to our paid staff, our volunteers, our partners, our contracted service providers or anyone else acting on our behalf.

We recognise that a complaint may be made about a service we operate. In those cases a complaint may be made by a person to whom we deliver services or goods or who is affected by our services or goods, a partner, a local organisation with which we work, our staff, volunteers, donors or a member of the public.

Anonymous complaints can be made, but obviously our ability to investigate them may be limited because of this.

PROCESSES

1. Educating our organisation on the Mercy Works complaint policy and training relevant personnel

Mercy Works Complaints Policy has been distributed to all our paid staff, our volunteers, our partners, our contracted service providers and all others acting on our behalf. We require all those who may be involved in any way with a complaint to formally signify their commitment to this policy.

To familiarise them with this policy we run induction programs for our governing board members and all relevant personnel. Personnel directly involved in complaint handling are fully trained in all aspects of this policy and its implementation. We take special care to train our field personnel to encourage, receive and handle complaints taking account of language issues and cultural sensitivities.

2. Publicising the Policy

Mercy Works make clear the value we place on receiving concerns and complaints in all relevant communications. We use the word "complaint" or its equivalent in relevant languages other than English. Our website opening page has a prominent tab with the word complaint linking to this policy and information on how to make a complaint. Where literacy is a constraint we will orally invite expressions of concern and complaint on a regular basis. We will take care to give this invitation in a way that is culturally appropriate recognising that in some cultures people require greater encouragement to make a complaint. We will take special care to facilitate complaints from vulnerable populations including children and marginalised groups. If required we will make use of pictorial means of communication.

We ensure that making a complaint to us is as easy as possible. We will take complaints orally in person, over the phone and by any written means. We will do our very best to assist a complainant to put their complaint in writing or to write it down ourselves as faithfully as we can.

All relevant communications explain this and explain our procedures for handling complaints including

- where or to whom complaints can be made
- information to be provided by the complainant
- the process for handling complaints
- time periods associated with various stages in the process
- the complainant's options for remedy, including external means
- how the complainant can obtain feedback on the status of the complaint

In addition to the general reviews of our complaint handling we will monitor how effectively we are publicising our complaints policy on a continuing basis and make necessary improvements in its communication.

3. Where and How Complaints may be made

Mercy Works is able to receive complaints to Sr Ailsa Mackinnon orally in person or by telephone (+61 2 9564 1911) and in writing by post (Mercy Works, 1 Thomas St Lewisham NSW 2049 Australia), email (mwed@mercy.org.au) or online via our website (www.mercyworks.org.au) or social media(www.facebook.com/mercyworksLtd). Where complaints are made orally we will ensure our write up of the complaint contains all the information the complainant wishes to provide.

Complaints may be made by a friend or advocate of the complainant on their behalf.

Where appropriate, for some projects/programmes we may establish complaint committees involving representatives from partner organisations and members of communities we are serving.

Where appropriate we may utilise complaint/suggestion boxes. We recognise that in some circumstances complainants may wish to remain anonymous. Because such complaints can alert us to problems that need fixing we will accept them though clearly it may not be possible to provide a remedy to an individual.

4. How Mercy Works will handle complaints

When Mercy Works takes an oral complaint we will:

- Identify ourselves, listen, record details, and determine what the client hopes to achieve;
- Confirm that we have understood and received the details;
- Show empathy for the client, but not attempt to take sides, lay blame, or become defensive;

For all complaints we will:

- Seek to clarify the outcome/s the client hopes to achieve;
- Make an initial assessment of the severity of the complaint and the urgency of action
- Clearly explain to the client the course of action that will follow:
  - if the complaint is out of our jurisdiction;
  - if we exercise a discretion not to investigate;
  - if preliminary enquiries need to be made, or further consideration needs to be given: or
  - if the complaint is to be investigated.
- We will not create false expectations, but assure the client that the complaint will receive full attention;
- Give an estimated timeframe or, if that is not possible, a date by which we will contact them again;
- Check whether the client understands the proposed action and advise them of alternatives if not satisfied.
- Ensure that the complaint is appropriately acknowledged by the receiving person/s;
- Follow up where necessary, and monitor whether the client is satisfied with the process.
- We will register all complaints.

Where appropriate we will ensure that personnel working in communities we serve have all necessary training to encourage and handle inquiries, expressions of concern and making of complaints so as to take account of cultural and gender sensitivities and to ensure that cases involving children are appropriately handled.

We will ensure that a complainant is not required to express their complaint to a person implicated in their complaint. We will also ensure that a person implicated in a complaint is not involved in any way with the handling of that complaint.

Initial assessment of complaint

We will first assess whether there is more than one issue raised in the complaint and whether each needs to be separately addressed.

To determine how a complaint should be managed, we will assess it in terms of the following criteria:

- a) severity;
- b) health (including mental health) and safety implications;
- c) financial implications for the complainant or others
- c) complexity;
- d) impact on the individual, public and organisation;
- e) potential to escalate; and
- f) the need for, and possibility of immediate action.

If we assess the complaint as significant in terms of one or more of these criteria we will classify the complaint accordingly.

5. Inquiries, minor complaints and jurisdiction

Mercy Works will endeavour to deal immediately with inquiries and minor complaints which are made orally by telephone or in person, that is during the initial phone call or meeting. However, as far as possible, we will ensure that the inquirer or complainant is satisfied with the information and or resolution provided.

On receipt of a complaint we will also attempt to determine expeditiously whether investigation is required or not depending on jurisdictional questions and whether the complaint is ill conceived.

If the complainant disputes an assessment that a complaint should not be investigated, the member of staff handling the complaint will refer it to a more senior colleague for review. If such a dispute is unresolvable we will refer the complainant to Code Committee of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID)

6. How Mercy Works will investigate complaints

Mercy Works will make every reasonable effort to investigate all the relevant circumstances and information surrounding a complaint. Mercy Works will provide impartial support to both the complainant and the person/s complained about. The level of investigation will be commensurate with the seriousness and frequency of the complaint.

7. Mercy Works timeframes

We will acknowledge written complaints within 5 days.

We will acknowledge oral complaints immediately.

We will aim to resolve complaints as quickly as possible and within 30 days unless there are exceptional circumstances. If a complaint is not resolved within 30 days we will inform the complainant of progress and keep them informed of progress every two weeks.

8. How Mercy Works will respond to and close a complaint

The Mercy Works Executive Director or a senior manager delegated by her will normally make the decision on a complaint that has required investigation (that is not a minor complaint). Decisions on serious complaints may be referred to the Mercy Works Board.

We will communicate our decision on a complaint as soon as is practical. Our communication will be in writing in the appropriate language by email and/or post. However, where appropriate such as in the case of a complaint being made by a local community member (in the field) we will also communicate our decision orally and again in the appropriate language.

We will encourage the complainant to respond and advise whether or not they are satisfied with our decision. In our decision we will advise that if a complainant is not satisfied we will be prepared to consider any new information they may provide and to review our decision.

In all cases we will advise that the complaint may be referred to the Code Committee of ACFID. We will provide all necessary information for referral to the Code Committee and offer to assist in referral.

9. How Mercy Works will learn from complaints

Mercy Works will ensure that all relevant personnel are informed of the outcomes of complaints and the implications for our services, goods, procedures and processes.

We will take all required remedial action. We will be prepared to change the way in which we operate and improve or undertake further training of staff. Where needed we will counsel or discipline staff or volunteers.

Where appropriate we will consult and take advice from ACFID and/or other relevant regulatory/enforcement authorities.

10. Confidentiality

Mercy Works will not reveal a complainant's name or personal details to anyone in or outside our organisation other than staff involved in handling the complaint without obtaining the complainant's permission.

11. Complaint data

Mercy Works will register all inquiries and complaints. We will ensure that the following information is contained in written complaints and if not, and in the case of oral complaints, record this information ourselves:

- date of receipt
- a description of the complaint and relevant supporting data;
- the requested remedy;
- the service(s) and/or good(s) and/or practice or procedure complained about;
- the due date for a response;
- immediate action taken (if any) to resolve the complaint

12. Reporting about complaints

Mercy Works will immediately escalate complex and/or major complaints to our Executive Director or her delegate.

All complaints will be reported at our regular Mercy Works Board meetings.

Minor complaints will be reported in summary form. Major complaints will be reported in detail.

An analysis will be included in the complaints report provided with the complaints data.

Our Annual Report will provide de-identified information on complaints.

13. Continuous improvement

On a continuing basis Mercy Works will monitor the effectiveness of our complaint handling and make improvements as appropriate.

We will conduct an internal review of the effectiveness of our complaint handling every year.

We will commission an independent review of the effectiveness of our complaint handling after 3 years and then every 5 years. delete
